

Dino Saurus Games

Verse 1

A long, long time ago. A million years if you wanna know.
Dinosaurs were all over the place.
Every single year they'd come from far and wide
to cheer.
And compete in the Dino-Saurus Games.

Chorus

The Dino Games.
The Dino Saurus Games.
The Dino Saurus Games.

Verse 2

Diplodocus won the hurdles, much to everyone's surprise.
A fine display of grace and speed for a fellow of his size.
The medal ceremony just went on and on and on.
Because it was so difficult to get a medal on a neck so long.

Chorus

The Dino Games.
The Dino Saurus Games.
The Dino Saurus Games.

Verse 3

A Woolly Mammoth throws a javelin. He won't be easily beaten.
A Pterodactyl in the high jump? I think that might be cheatin'.

Verse 3 (Cont.)

Iguanodon is ready to ride, in his purple lycra.
Next, in the pole vault. Is the Sabre Tooth Tiger.
"Meow."

Chorus

The Dino Games.
The Dino Saurus Games.
The Dino Saurus Games.

Verse 4

Triceratops and Stegosaurus ran the final race.
But from nowhere came Velociraptor, they were way outpaced.
She came whizzing right on by and soon he crossed the line.
The crowd all roared and cheered because she ran a record time.

Chorus

The Dino Games.
The Dino Saurus Games.
The Dino Saurus Games.
The Dino Saurus Games.
