

Matching Socks

Verse 1

My best friend is a funny little pig.
And he doesn't look at all like me.
But, together we make the perfect team.
Like Bread and Butter... A flower and a bee...
... like a throw and a catch.
I can't see why my socks should have to match.

Verse 2

I could wear a green sock on one foot.
A red sock on the other.
If you agree how socks should be, try explain it to my father!
So why stop there with different socks?
I could even try different shoes...
One yellow on my left and the other shoe in blue.

Chorus

Things that go together well, they're not always the same.
Like peas and carrots...
A pirate and a parrot...
Strawberries and cream.
So why must we wear matching socks on our feet?
I think our feet deserve some individuality.

Verse 3

I could get a hairstyle, one side purple one side pink.
It could look quite stylish, and spiky! What d'ya think?
A shirt with orange polka dots and shorts with silver stripes.
One glove in sparkly gold, and one in ivory white!

Chorus

Things that go together well, they're not always the
same.
Like peas and carrots...
A pirate and a parrot...
Strawberries and cream.
So why must we wear matching socks on our feet?
I think our feet deserve some individuality.

Verse 4

Every tooth inside my mouth could even be a different colour.
I could have one ear indigo and a bright green shade
the other.
Now it's getting a little weird, I might start back from scratch.
And stick to wearing different socks that make a perfect match.

Chorus

Things that go together well, they're not always the
same.
Like peas and carrots...
A pirate and a parrot...
Strawberries and cream.
So why must we wear matching socks on our feet?
I think our feet deserve some individuality.
